CAMP KILLCARE
Summit County

Mr. Kirkpatrick built up the Camp Killcare in it's beginning about 1928 or 1929.

There was a baseball diamond, camping space, a store, a rodeo ground, cafe, dance hall, and a gasoline pump.

Over the years, people who have worked there, are: LaMirl (Jim) Sweeny, Wilma (Arzy) Crystal, Doris (Ellis) Crook, Margaret Dudley, Clara Bowers, Mary Ethel Alexander O"Driscoll, Lila Mitchell, Doris Mitchell, Leota Fowles (George) Dunham, Merle Layton, Margaret Denner, and Evva Atkinson on weekends.

Killcare operated for about 50 years.

Many local area people celebrated annual celebrations of 4th of July and other celebrations at this resort located above (East) of Francis, Utah on the Provo River.

REF: 1. Personal interview with Evva McNeil Atkinson
Oct 1989